WHITE

2019 Viognier

$8

$24

$260

Though difficult to cultivate and vinify, when done correctly Viognier produces an irresistibly exotic essence. Light, crisp, and refreshing. This Rhone varietal has aromas of luscious tropical fruit, and hints of citrus, peach and melon, which linger gently on the palate.

2019 Serenade

This delicious off-dry blend of Riesling and Viognier has subtle notes of pineapple and ripe apricots, with a long and lingering finish.

ROSÉ

2019 Merlot Rosé

$8

$24

$260

Our Rosé is made in the proper classic rose style, by allowing our merlot grapes to remain on the skins after destemming for only a few hours. It is dry, blended with a small percentage of Viognier to broaden the fruit experience. Watermelon and red cherries, even ripe tropical flavors make for a refreshing and delicate wine.

RED

2019 La Copine

$8

$24

$260

A very light-bodied table wine blended with Merlot and just a hint of Viognier. Spending one year in French oak barrels, it is similar to Beaujolais – not too serious and easily quaffable by wine lovers that shy away from our more tannic reds. Gentile with notes of vanilla, and Bing cherry. Drinking slightly chilled enhances the red berry flavors.

2018 Meritage

$9

$28

$303

Bordeaux style blend of Cabernet Franc, Merlot and Cabernet Sauvignon. Slightly pungent and earthy, it delivers a wide range of red fruit, boysenberry, and spice, with silky tannins and jam, as well as darker fruits in the finish.

2018 1629

$11

$42

$454

A wine steeped in history, blended and named to honor the first vinifera plantings in North America which were right here in our beautiful state! Tempranillo, Syrah and Cabernet Sauvignon join together to create a rich and full bodied wine which is bursting with character. Notes of plum and dark berries.

2017 Cabernet Franc

$11

$38

$410

It has been a quarter century since Casa Rondeña produced its first Cabernet Franc. Along the way, we've learned a few things. Earth tones, briarwood, dark fruit, forest floor, high desert sun.

2017 Syrah

$12

$46

$497

This opulent wine is full bodied and aged for twenty months in the finest French oak barrels. Soft tannins, rich, earthy and luscious, the way Syrah is meant to be.
