1. Cabernet Franc (2022)

It's been a quarter century since Casa Rondeña crafted its first Cabernet Franc. Over the years, we've learned a few things: this wine is classically varietal, with earthy tones, briarwood, dark fruit, hints of forest floor, and the warmth of high desert sun.

2. Meritage (2021)

A Bordeaux-style blend of Cabernet Franc, Merlot, and Cabernet Sauvignon. Slightly earthy and expressive, it showcases a spectrum of red fruits, plum, boysenberry, black pepper, and spice, with silky tannins and jammy notes, finishing with rich, darker fruits. Old World in style, this Casa Rondeña favorite has been delighting guests for over 25 years.

3. 1629 (2022)

This John Calvin creation is Iberian in style, reflecting a deep passion for the high-desert climate it represents. A blend of Tempranillo, Syrah, and Cabernet Sauvignon, it is rich, expressive, and beautifully balanced, with layers of dark fruit. Best enjoyed with someone you love.

4. Syrah (2020)

A rich, luscious, and velvety deep red wine, showcasing notes of blackberry and black cherry. Aged for 24 months in oak barrels, this full-bodied vintage unfolds layers of plum, subtle smoke, and white pepper spice, finishing dry and refined.
